

SEPTEMBER BREAKFAST Getting out of the Comfort Zone

We are delighted to bring you Author and Business Woman Kim Edwards as your guest speaker for September. Join us to hear Kim discuss the topic "Getting out of the Comfort Zone"

As women, we constantly encounter change and challenges that need to be faced in order to reach success in both business and life. In order to face those challenges we are often pushed out of where we feel comfortable and secure. Change can also come with enormous risk that can appear overwhelming to assess and navigate. So, how exactly do you know which risk to take? When do you know it's right to risk it all? Maybe it's time to get a little uncomfortable.....
